

1. Create an array containing 10 elements with varying data types(Strings, Numbers, Booleans, Undefined, Null) and display them in the console in sequential order.
2. Define an object with 6 properties in the following order: string, number, boolean, null, undefined, and an array. Display all six properties in the console.
3. Conduct research on JavaScript functions.